

Director Notes for February

We are in the process of shifting the whole library. Be patient with us. We are running completely out of room for large print books.

I put the numbers in the package that I got from Erica and Christal. With the snow and cold, we are still doing a wonderful job.

It is Love Your Library Month. Give Erica a reason why you love the library. She is posting the responses on Facebook. Stop by the circulation desk if you want to fill out a heart. It will get hung up for everyone to read.

The Friends area got some light this week. The dark area, where the furnace is sitting, got fixed this week.

I had Brad take the rods out of the parking lot where our speed bump was. I will see if I can get the one put back in place. I will wait until I know the snow is over.

Pam did 340 new items in January.
