

Director Notes for March

Our new carpet was laid in the reading room, and our leaking gutters were fixed this week. The gutters were leaking water onto the patio that the children use.

We will be having National Library Week from April 6 -9 . Christal is going to have a table of give aways. The Friends are going to be here to give out things. The Foundation will help hand things out for the Library.